

Retrofit. Reconfigure. Reinvent.

The COVID-19 pandemic is changing the workplace forever. Everyone's top priority is to bring people back to work as responsibly as possible. But everyone is rethinking the office environment to enable people to create, connect, and collaborate, but to also be safe.

We're here to help you navigate what's next, whether it's reconfiguring an open-office floorplan to establish six-foot distances, moving existing workspaces, or creating new workspaces. A complete overhaul of your workplace may not be necessary, but a few changes can create an environment where workers can be comfortable, productive, and socially distanced.

Workspaces

Make the most of your existing workspace as effectively and economically as possible.

- Create new workspaces
- Reconfigure existing workspaces
- Install partitions
- Move/remove/install cabling/wiring
- Use existing cabling/patch cords

Presence Detectors

Smart lights can indicate when it is safe to enter a coffee, copy, or meeting room for safe distancing.

- Install smart light switches/sensors
- Replace light switches with smart sensors
- Install social distancing monitors
- Move/reconfigure work area lighting
- Track number/movement of people

Wireless/Networking

Add or extend wireless capacity to offices to make it easier for team members to work safely.

- Extend Wi-Fi in existing office areas
- Add Wi-Fi to new office workspaces/rooms
- Upgrade Wi-Fi capabilities
- Increase network capacity
- Install smart technology
